

WARSHAFSKY, ROTTER, TARNOFF & BLOCH, S.C.

The roots of the Warshafsky Law Firm lie deep within its twin passions for justice and a sense of community. "Our commitment is to clients and community first — fees and fame second," says founder Ted M. Warshafsky.

AREAS OF PRACTICE The firm's areas of practice have developed from its commitment to the protection of the individual in cases involving:

- Automobile accidents
- Wrongful death
- Medical malpractice
- Product liability
- Workers' compensation
- Nursing home abuse

SEVEN SUPER LAWYERS The firm is proud to have six of its seven Super Lawyers named for a second consecutive year.

Gerald J. Bloch — Top 50 — has been named in Who's Who in American Law for 18 consecutive years.

Frank T. Crivello II is an award recipient for excellence in law, and is the co-author of Trial Book for Wisconsin Lawyers.

Victor C. Harding is a member of the Association of Trial Lawyers of America and the Wisconsin Academy of Trial Lawyers.

Ann S. Jacobs — Top 25 Women — is the author of "Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act," a chapter in the Wisconsin Juvenile Law Handbook.

OUR COMMITMENT IS TO CLIENTS AND COMMUNITY FIRST — FEES AND FAME SECOND.

Michael I. Tarnoff is a past president of the Wisconsin Academy of Trial Lawyers.

Ted M. Warshafsky is one of fewer than 50 lawyers in the United States, and the only one in Wisconsin, to have been inducted into membership of the American College of Trial Lawyers, the Inner Circle of Advocates, the International Academy of Trial Lawyers and the International Society of Barristers.

David L. Weir, who joined the firm this past year, has been named one of the elite group of Super Lawyers for the first time, and is a frequent lecturer for continuing legal education on workers' compensation topics.

A RECORD OF ACHIEVEMENT The firm boasts five past presidents of Wisconsin's Academy of Trial Lawyers, several members who have been listed in The Best Lawyers in America and others who have written numerous texts and articles including The Trial Handbook for Wisconsin Lawyers, a trial textbook used by attorneys throughout the state.

COMMUNITY COMMITMENT The Warshafsky Law Firm Foundation distributes scholarships to deserving young people in Milwaukee. The firm's attorneys continue to be active in pro bono work and support numerous community and civic groups that "do so much to improve the quality of life in our community," says Warshafsky.
